

Community Gaming & Entertainment Group (CGEG) is a locally owned company based in Windsor, Ontario.

The executive management team have decades of gaming experience in the Windsor and Essex County and across the province. The gaming centres in Windsor and Tecumseh combined have a staff of over 300 full and part time workers. There are over 400 charitable associations and groups in our area who are benefiting from charitable gaming at these gaming centres.

CGEG Executive managers are members of various gaming committees, associations and industry groups promoting and growing the gaming experience for our players.

The company is regulated under the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of the province of Ontario. The rules and regulations are in accordance to the province of Ontario's gaming laws.